

Jim Hall, the great jazz improviser, presents a jazz guitar master class for all guitarists. This DVD is unique because it not only provides a detailed approach to jazz improvisation by demonstrating techniques and musical theory, but it also allows students to find their own musical voices by showing possibilities based on Hall's musical experiences.

U.S. $19.99

ISBN 978-1-4234-9066-1

8 84088 47454 6

HL00320946

This DVD is designed for the newcomer to jazz guitar. It covers the fundamentals and basic concepts essential for jazz improvisation. Hall's master class was taped in an informal setting, with conversations and performances by Hall and New York City jazz guitarist Satoshi Inoue.

CONTENTS

Approach to Basic Blues	Dynamics
Discovering Jazz Guitar	Motive Development
Sounds of Jazz Guitar	II-V-I Progressions
Fingering and Picking	Finding Your Own Voice

SONGS INCLUDE

"Big Blues" and
"Whistle Stop"

RittorMusic

© 2009 RITTOR MUSIC, INC.

COVER PHOTO by Yukio Yanagi

Total running time: 55:57 minutes

EXCLUSIVELY DISTRIBUTED BY

 HAL•LEONARD®