Slowly

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The music begins with a piano (mp) dynamic. The melody in the right hand features a series of chords and moving lines, with a triplet of eighth notes in the second measure. The bass line provides harmonic support with chords and a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

The second system continues the piece. It features similar musical textures to the first system, with a focus on chordal movement and melodic lines in both hands. The tempo remains slow, and the dynamics are consistent.

The third system shows further development of the theme. The right hand has more complex chordal structures, while the left hand maintains a rhythmic accompaniment. The overall mood is contemplative and melancholic.

The fourth system continues the melodic and harmonic exploration. The piece maintains its slow, lyrical character throughout this section.

The fifth and final system of music concludes the piece. It features a return to some of the earlier melodic motifs, ending with a sustained chord in the right hand and a final bass note.
