From the Arranger

We all enjoy playing current popular hits on the piano, making the music we listen to our own. Smash Hits includes many styles and genres, giving you the opportunity to show your musical diversity. “The Middle,” “There’s Nothing Holdin’ Me Back,” and “No Tears Left to Cry” all share a driving intensity and strong beat. “Perfect” feels like a laidback ballad. “Meant to Be” gives you a taste of country, while “Havana” adds a memorable Latin flair to the mix. “Evermore” and “A Million Dreams” whisk you away with their beautiful, sweeping melodies. Try to capture the unique mood of each piece, and share this music with others.

Mona Rejino

An accomplished pianist, composer, arranger, and teacher, Mona Rejino maintains an independent piano studio in Carrollton, Texas. She also teaches privately at the Hockaday School and is a frequent adjudicator in the Dallas area. A member of Who’s Who of American Women, Mona received her music degrees from West Texas State University and the University of North Texas. She and her husband, Richard, often present programs on a variety of topics for music teacher associations throughout Texas as well as nationally.
