

THE YOUNG PIANIST'S REPERTOIRE, BOOK TWO

This volume is designed to provide a wide choice of pieces for those pianists completing Piano Lessons Book II (by the same authors). It also functions, of course, as an independent anthology for those who have been learning the piano for about two years. A few suggestions for pedalling and simple ornamentation have been included; their application is left to the teacher's discretion according to the ability of the pupil.

The editors are most grateful to Benjamin Britten for allowing them to include one of his hitherto unpublished Waltzes (written at the age of ten), and to Lennox Berkeley for writing a piece specially for the volume.
