JAZZ SAX

TRANSCRIBED by
JOHN ROBERT BROWN and BILL CHARLESON

The Tenor Saxophone has always been a favourite with jazz musicians. Inovative players like Coleman Hawkins, Stan Getz, Lester Young, Tubby Hayes and Ben Webster have helped establish the popularity of the instrument among jazz enthusiasts world-wide. Twenty of the finest examples of their playing and that of other contemporary tenor saxophonists have been transcribed from the original recordings and are featured in this book.
